Another Civ and Man assembly? . . . It's 8:25, all seniors should be headed for the auditorium . . . Petras elected Sr. Class Prez . . . Nine qualify for National Merit Semi-Finalist . . . Senior Circle . . . Upperclass and lowerclass — no, not really — just underclass . . . Junior achievement . . . Lonliness . . . Happiness . . . Fears . . . Frustrations . . . Friends . . . Hope . . . She was a beautiful Homecoming Queen . . . Mr. D. — what would the seniors do without you? . . . Senior week . . . Announcements, Cap & Gowns, Baccalaureate . . . Motto, Flowers, Colors, Songs . . . Juniors, only one more year . . . "Thunder On Sycamore Street" again, — but it's great . . . Juniors full of pep; first in magazine drive and cheerleaders . . . Freshmen, you can always tell — so small and those red algebra books! . . . Don't get upset — next year you won't be frosh . . .

National Honor Society Recognizes Achievement

"It gives me great pleasure to welcome you as outstanding seniors this evening," So began Principal Eugene Myslenski's welcome at the induction of 133 seniors October 26th in the Civic Auditorium. At the summer's end, Miss Elizabeth Roeder, Mrs. Emily Varzelle, and Mrs. Beverly Huether selected from students who had maintained a 2.7 grade average, qualities of leadership, character, scholarship, and service. In September, a final list was compiled and letters sent to chosen students. Service projects included sponsoring plays at Cleveland Playhouse, expansion of traditional tutoring program to handle greater volume, and staffing the Art Gallery. "The tutoring program exists for any kids who might need help; all they have to do is ask us. For example, Eunice Merritt is helping Aiko, our exchange student with English," commented Rachel Fauser, newly elected N.H.S. secretary.

Merit, Letters Awards Identify Outstanding Scholars

Nine seniors were cited for their scholastic ability and outstanding performance on the NMSQT. "It was kind of neat the way Mr. Myslenski announced us. It mad you feel important," stated scholar Fran Brokaw. The test was taken last spring and was made up of three parts: English Usage, Mathematical Usage, Social Studies. A semi-finalist must reveive a score in the 98 or 99 percentile, which is the top 2 %. The purpose of NMSQT is to enable corporations and other funds to seek highly scholastic students for scholarships.

Letters of Commendation winners were those who placed just under the semi-finalist rank, still an outstanding achievement of scholarship by Lakewood's top senior students.

Seniors Reflect On Numerous Autumnal Happenings
