Age 58
Las Vegas, Nevada

Steve Del Nero died on May 4, 2013 in Las Vegas, Nevada at age 58 after a long battle with cancer.

His partner and companion of many years was John McKim.

Several of our classmates wrote their memories of Steve online soon after his death.

One said, "I knew him going all the way back to grade school actually, although we went our separate ways after LHS. He was a gentle soul and a good person."

Another wrote, "We were in Latin classes together and in Latin Club. What a scholar and a kind gentleman."

Steve was a member of the National Honor Society at Lakewood High School.
