David B. Heller died at age 65 on September 4, 2020 in Lakewood, Ohio. He was the beloved son of the late Edward and Eda Heller, the loving brother of Craig Heller (Anna Sue) and Joyce Evin (Jeff), as well as a cherished uncle, great uncle, cousin, and friend of many.

He was the co-owner of Heller Machine Products.

Dave was a sports enthusiast who loved to play and watch baseball.

One of our classmates, who grew up next door to Dave on Lewis Drive, remembered him as one of the best natural athletes he ever knew and recalled this story: "Dave was the star of our church's basketball team. Senior year we won the city title. We would sit together in church in the balcony. There was a mom-and-pop store on the corner by church. Many times we snuck out of church and used our church offering for candy. He was a great guy."

While in high school, Dave was on the baseball team and a member of the Bowling Club.
