Age 46

Gary Walter Mikulik died on August 26, 2001 at age 46 in Westlake, Ohio.

Gary died in a house fire, along with his wife Ginger Anne Lavelle Mikulik. The couple married in Florida on May 5, 1989.

At time of our 20th reunion in 1992, Gary was a self-employed wall paper hanger living in Westlake. He wrote in the reunion booklet: "I've performed in a few fairly successful bands, such as Ida Red, Bourbon Street, Slick Pickle, and Oasis. I own and operate a small business involving interior decorating. I recently became a golf animal. I still party and like to have fun."

While he was a student at Lakewood High, Gary was a super athlete, playing on the freshman, JV, and varsity football teams, as well as freshman baseball and wrestling teams, and indoor and outdoor track.
