

William Schneider
March 1, 2010
Age 52
Northbrook, Illinois

William Schneider died on March 1, 2010 at age 52 in Northbrook, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago.

Bill was survived by his wife, Gie Schneider, and his sons Andrew Schneider and Jonathan Schneider, as well as his brothers Rob Schneider, Randy Schneider (Kim), Ron Schneider (Annette), and Ralph Schneider.

A friend who has known Bill, his wife, and children since she was five years old said this in tribute to Bill: "I want to thank you for bringing two of the most cherished, caring, dearest, honest boys, I've ever had the privilege to call friends, into this world. I will hold onto the memories we have shared."

Bill was very active as a student at Lakewood High, participating in Freshman Orchestra, Varsity Band, Stage Band, Symphonic Band, Marching Band, and Symphonic Orchestra. He was also in Barnstormers, Debate Team, National Honor Society, and National Forensic League, for which he served as president one year.