Age 66
Galion, Ohio

Douglas H. Streeter died on September 24, 2020 at age 66 in Galion, Ohio.

He was survived by his wife, Michelle Shepperd Streeter, whom he married in 1983, and his daughters, Sarah (Mick) Fraser and Katie (Andy) Farrow, as well as six grandchildren, Madison, Sophia, Bennie, Allison, Ashton, and Kade. He was also survived by his brothers, David (Marilynn) Streeter and James Streeter, his father-in-law and mother-in-law, Charles and Grace Shepperd, and his brother-in-law Mike (Ann) Shepperd, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Doug was preceded in death by his parents, Melvin D. and Virginia M. (Spahr) Streeter, as well as his brother, Melvin Streeter Jr.

He was a competitive and hard-working man but his family, which he loved very much, always came first. Doug worked for 23 years for the City of Galion, including as a lab technician for the City of Galion Water Treatment Plant for the past 15 years.

Doug's passion was baseball! At Lakewood High School, Doug played on both the JV and varsity baseball teams and continued to play softball on community teams, including the Holy Name Softball Team. He and his brother, Melvin, loved anything to do with baseball and softball. Doug also coached his daughters in high school softball, umpired both baseball and college girls' softball, refereed boys' and girls' basketball, and assisted his daughter, Sarah, as coach at Colonel Crawford High School.
