

Barbara Shaughnessy Hein
December 8, 2023
North Ridgeville, Ohio

Barbara Shaughnessy Hein died on December 8, 2023 at age 69 in North Ridgeville just weeks before what would have been her 70th birthday on December 30.

Barb was the beloved wife of our LHS '72 classmate Edward Hein, who died on November 20, 2014 at age 60.

Barb and Ed were the parents of Richard (Christina) and Justin (Katie), as well as grandparents of Matthew, Sarah, Edward, and Allison. Barb is survived by her siblings Pat (Roger), Ed (Pat), Mike (Karin), Tom, Charlie (Briege), Bob, and Rick (Rita).

Barb, who will be remembered for her selfless acts of charity towards others, was an avid reader who loved spending time with her family, particularly her grandchildren.

When Barb was a student at Lakewood High, she was in the Friendship Club and FTA.

Some of our classmates shared their memories of Barb:

Cindy Fox Toman: "Barb was my maid of honor. She stayed in town. We stayed close. She and Ed are our daughter's godparents. And every time she and I got together, hours flew by. We were never done talking."

Elise Miller: "My first friend when I moved to Lakewood at age 12. We stayed close all this time. I loved her so much."
